A few pointers to remember by

- When reposting, add your own ideas or questions to share to the network. A line or a small paragraph (100 words) about how insightful the post is, how a collaboration was meaningful, or just highlighting your experience.

- Please support the writers, share credits, and add links to sources for all the written content while reposting as a good practice.

- Be mindful of the tonality in which your description is written while reposting. As a project that promotes the future of work and learning, we always want to encourage positive & friendly voices. Writing that benefits future leaders and influencers alike!

- Help us reach many members with your engagement. We'll hit home if the re-posts are consistent with various events or in line with when the courses are launched. Please do share your support when there are campaigns running on our LinkedIn page or our website.
